A Welcome from Your President

The welcome sign is always out to friends and former students of Montana State University. You will observe that something new is being added to the campus, but you need never feel a stranger here.

Particularly the members of the classes of 1902 and 1927, who are celebrating their Golden and Silver graduation anniversaries, will appreciate the changes to be wrought by the present construction on the campus. It was in 1902 that the need for adequate living accommodations for women students inaugurated construction of Craig Hall, the first addition to the University's then two-building campus. By 1923, when the members of the class of 1927 came here as freshmen, North and South Halls were first occupied and the Men's Gymnasium was opened.

But, while additions and extensions must come, the good past blends easily with the new. In our hearts the University never really changes much. It is enriched year by year by the growing numbers of men and women who have been educated here and whom we welcome again on this annual Homecoming.

GUIDE COUGAR DESTINY—Coaches Dave Crowton, Bob Bunker, Chick Atkinson, and Reed Nielsen comprise coaching staff of growing Brigham Young University during the hectic 1952 pigskin season.

Brigham Young's Formidable Foursome . . .

Football fans will have to go a long way to match the talents, natural abilities and unquenchable spirit of the four Cougar mentors pictured above. Separate and distinct personalities on and off the field, this quartet of mentors operates as one smooth-working collective body when it comes to working towards the common goals of the group. A close-up of each reveals:

Head Coach Charles "Chick" Atkinson—Here's a man just 34 years old, who four years ago, stepped into the fast company of collegiate football coaching. In the four years he has been at BYU, Chick has run the length of setbacks and obstacles, and yet his spirit is undaunted by the rough spots in the past and the uncertainties of the future. His first year at Cougarville found him losing every contest of an 11-game schedule, but he's come a country mile since then.

An athlete of exceptional merit, Chick is an Idaho product and is still remembered throughout the state for his athletic talents. He excelled in baseball, basketball, and football before graduating from Idaho University with both BS and MS degrees.

Line Coach Reed Nielsen—This rotund driver goes a mile-a-minute on the practice field, developing the finer points of the game. A vet with plenty of knowhow and intestinal fortitude under his belt, Reed came up through BYU grid school. He was all-conference center for two years in a row, and played in East-West game his senior year. Nielsen also spent two valuable years with the Detroit Lions before accepting a post at his alma mater.

End Coach Bob Bunker—Came out of the Gem State with Chick to help rebuild the Cougar team. A Utah State grad, Bob functions with flankers on grid techniques. He racked up quite a record as Peston High mentor before adding his dry humor and up-stairs savvy to Cougar coaching pool.

HALFTIME ACTIVITIES

Probably the most colorful event during Homecoming will be the half time entertainment at the game by the 85-piece Montana State University marching band, directed by J. Justin Gray. This year the theme of the band program will be "Memories of Four Years at MSU," a pageant of formations and music depicting campus life.

After entering the field, the band will form an outline of old University Hall (Main Hall) and will play the "Halls of Ivy" to honor the building that stands at the head of our campus and that was the first building constructed on the campus. The next formation will spell out PROF and the band will play "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf."

From there the band will form a football and will strike up "Mr. Touchdown, U.S.A." in memory of the many football games played during a college career. A huge heart will be the next formation and the band will play "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi." When the word EXAM is spelled out, the band will play "The Wheel of Fortune" and the "Funeral March."

Concluding the memory series, they will form the letters GRAD and will play "Happy Days Are Here Again."

The band will then form a large crown on the field, and the floats of the lovely Homecoming queen candidates will parade around the stadium. The candidates, who were selected by their living groups to vie for the title, will be introduced by Kenneth C. Duff, president of the MSU Alumni Association, and 1952 Homecoming queen will be crowned by him in front of the east bleachers. After the ceremonies the band will conclude the program by playing the state song, "Montana, My Montana."
